Singapore has many cool and happening places where you can chill out with your friends and people watch at the same time.

Here's a list of the must See and Be Seen Restaurants in Singapore.

Somebody might call them the coolest restaurants to eat in, or even go to the extent of claiming that they are the most happening places in Singapore to people watch. Others might raise an eyebrow at the ~~pretentious~~ atas restaurants. Oh whatever. They are the must-go places in Singapore!

Ku De Ta

The classy rooftop venue is the definitely the latest place to see and be seen. When you have such a stunning view of the city's skyline at the top of Marina Bay Sands, with the help a glass of champagne, anything can happen.
